DEC Memo: "Prior to Sept, 2004 data translation this spill Lead_DEC Field was ENGELHARDT E2MIS 114127 L. Sanchez, OSDS, 81228 Jan 12, 1998 Kevin McGuire, Crane and Riggings supervisor, reported that on Jan 7, 1998 at approximately 1000h. Steve Marshall, Crane Operator on crane #91173, informed him of a spill of 4 gallons of hydraulic fluid from a ruptured hydraulic hose. Spill occurred after one of the animals had been successfully lifted from its tanks at the New York City Aquarium. The animal was then transported elsewhere for surgery. The spill was immediately contained and cleanup procedures were immediately started. The maintenance garage was contacted and mechanics were dispatched to repair the ruptured hose. After its repair, the crane was left in place because the animal would have to be returned to its tank. Final cleanup was completed by 1800h. No material entered the environment. The spill was on blacktop."
Remarks: "caller states a part failure on a crane caused the hydraulic leak at the above site. product was contained and cleaned up by con ed"
